Ideal UX

Ideal UX for Fire Alarm Website

Video walkthrough URL : https://youtu.be/-HldKu_aw8I

In this document we studied various websites ranking on page 1 of google for keywords such as

Fire alarm company kildare, fire alarm company ireland

We studied various sections and came up with a set of sections that makes a website for fire alarm successful.

Along with screenshots you would also see the URL of the respective website from where those screenshots have been taken.

If you submit the home page content with all those sections that are stated below, your chances of ranking your business site will be very higher if you takes ongoing SEO, if you are lucky you may even get ranked for some low competitive long tail and localized keywords on google as well with just on page SEO

Disclaimer : We only try and suggest you with our quick research the ideal UX and probability of such sites ranking and performing on google are higher but there is no guarantee if this would perform or not, For guaranteed results you need to go with 10K GBP lead generating offer which is well researched and strategic design that is bound to get you leads if you promote that via running ads.
